Report on ANEC Information Dissemination cum Photo exhibition at Byalakuppe from 23rd Dec, 2015 to 29 December 2015

Thursday 24, 2015

Since we have finished setting up tent and preparation for the program on Wednesday. Around 7:20 in the morning, we started distributing the brochures and explaining about the organization to interested individual with photo exhibition. We were able to distribute 200 brochures specially emphasized for Tibetans and foreigners who are at the Dalai Lama's teaching. Since Active Nonviolence Education Center is Non-Profit Organization; solely rely on contribution from individuals. We had conducted fundraise program through which we were able to collect Rs 2680 /- from generous contributors.

Friday 25, 2015

Tashi Lungpo monastery's Administrator allowed us to distribute brochures to the dining hall, where foreigners were having lunch after the teaching. It was effective since people from different countries are gathering at the dining hall and we were able to distribute 300 brochures to almost everyone. In the afternoon, we had distributed brochures to monks, nuns, students, foreigners and Tibetans from Tibet. We had collectively distributed around 380 brochures to the individuals.

We had also received donation of Rs 4110 /- and $ 100 from concerned individual named George H. Cochter (Email gcocter@worldcom.ch) from USA showed great deal of interest in the works of the Active Nonviolence Education Center. He truly appreciated the workshops, seminars and outreach and awareness programs of our organization.

Saturday 26, 2015

We had distributed around 150 brochures and received total donation of Rs 6110 /- . We also had so many people from different ways of life who had shared their opinions on the importance of nonviolence and appreciated the works that we have been doing for the past eight years. We also met Linda Norble, she is a professor and had an experience working with conflict resolution (NGO) located in Dharamsala. She is critical about the works that the Active Nonviolence Education center has been doing. Since she had years of experience working with conflict resolution and slight dissatisfaction with the way conflict resolution is conducting program without proper follow up in which she specifically enquired about the ANEC program follow up and result yielded from the workshop , seminars and outreach programs. Since the Active Nonviolence Education Center has been doing follow up program and generated successful result for the past eight years. She was satisfied with the way the Active Nonviolence Education Center had conducted programs so far.
